SPEAKER'S CHAIR 1

The Speaker oversees the proceedings from the impressive carved oak chair at the south end of the Chamber. The Speaker makes sure that MLAs follow established rules of behaviour and parliamentary procedure. The Speaker is neutral and only votes to break a tie.

CLERKS' TABLE 2

Assembly and the Table
Officers sit at the Clerks' Table
on the floor of the Chamber.
The Clerks record decisions of the Legislative Assembly and provide non-partisan advice on parliamentary procedure to the Speaker and all MLAs.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS

The Sergeant-at-Arms is responsible for security at the Parliament Buildings, including the Chamber. The Sergeant-at-Arms is seated next to the Bar of the House, to ensure the security of the MLAs and to enforce the Speaker's orders.

MACE 4

The mace is the symbol of the Legislative Assembly's authority to govern. It is placed on the Clerks' Table at the start of each sitting by the Sergeant-at-Arms which signifies that the Legislative Assembly is in session with the Crown's full knowledge and consent.

BAR OF THE HOUSE 5

The Bar of the House is a brass bar that blocks entrance to the Chamber that cannot be crossed by anyone who is not an MLA, unless by invitation of the Speaker. The Bar of the House is a reminder of the Legislative Assembly's authority to meet without the Crown's interference.

HANSARD 6

Hansard is the official report of the debates of the Legislative Assembly. MLA desks have microphones and the Chamber walls have television cameras for live broadcasting. Hansard is also available as a written report on the Internet.

Inside the Parliament Buildings in Victoria, British Columbia, the 93 elected representatives – called Members of the Legislative Assembly (MLAs) – meet to shape the future of the province.

The Parliament Buildings and surrounding areas are located in the traditional territories of the Lekwungen-speaking (pronounced Le-KWUNG-en) peoples. Now known as the Songhees and Esquimalt Nations, these Coast Salish people have a rich culture and history dating back thousands of years.

7 GOVERNMENT

A majority government is formed when one political party wins the majority of seats in the Legislative Assembly. A minority government occurs when a governing party does not win the majority of seats in a general election, but has the support of a majority of the Members.

8 PREMIER

The Premier is the leader of the political party that is supported by the majority of Members in the Assembly and becomes the head of the provincial government. The Premier is also the President of the Executive Council made up of the Ministers of the Crown.

9 OPPOSITION

The political party in opposition that wins the largest number of seats in an election becomes the Official Opposition. The primary role of the Official Opposition, and other smaller opposition parties and independent MLAs, is to question government actions and present alternatives to government policies.

10 LEADER OF THE OFFICIAL OPPOSITION

The Leader of the Official Opposition is the leader of the political party in opposition with the largest number of seats after a general election.

11 PUBLIC GALLERY

Seats are available to the public in the galleries overlooking the Chamber to observe the work of the MLAs. The public are welcomed to the galleries whenever the Legislative Assembly is sitting.

12 PRESS GALLERY

A term that refers to both the seats above the Speaker's Chair where reporters sit to watch the MLAs at work, as well as the group of reporters that cover legislative business.
