

Virtual Scavenger Hunt

Macey, the Parliamentary Cat, has gone missing. Search for Macey around the Parliament Buildings on our Virtual Scavenger Hunt. Every question you answer gives you a clue as to where Macey is hiding.

Good luck!

1

Her Latin title was Regina Imperatrix, but most people know her as Queen

_____.

2

Featuring a loon and a frog (but sadly no cats), the Knowledge _____ was carved by Cicero August.

3

The _____ of Arms features a royal lion, the most fearsome of cats!

4

Canoes like this are usually used on moving water, which is why its name means 'A Safe Place to Cross the _____'.

5

The Women's Wall marks important _____ in the history of voting rights in British Columbia.

6

Queen Elizabeth II unveiled this window for her Golden Jubilee, celebrating _____ years of her reign.

7

Whenever the Ceremonial Entrance is used, a red carpet is _____ out for the guest of honour.

8

When you watch debates from the Public Galleries, you must follow certain _____.

9

The golden _____ represents the authority of the Assembly to govern.

10

The _____ of the House is responsible for overseeing debates from the large chair.

11

The books in the Legislative Library are stored in the large _____.

12

You might call these creatures 'gargoyles', but gargoyles must spit water. These are called _____.

1 2 3 4 5

6 7 8

9 10 11 12

Good work, you've found all the clues! To find where Macey is hiding, click on the magnifying glass in the top left-hand corner of the Virtual Scavenger Hunt and enter the words above.

